

Richard Gaffney

Principal Lawyer
Serious Injuries

Cambridge, UK

Richard specialises in handling cases involving serious injury and accidents in the armed forces.

He has significant experience in claims involving head injury and multiple orthopaedic injuries as well as fatal accident claims.

Richard spent 10 years in the armed forces before becoming a lawyer so has particular understanding of the complexities when dealing with military accident claims.

During his career he has developed several niche legal service areas including claims involving complicated chronic pain issues.
