

Stuart Cochran

Practice Group Leader
Personal Injury

Edinburgh, Scotland

Stuart leads our team of specialist personal injury solicitors in Scotland.

He is an expert in pursuing large compensation claims in Scotland's supreme civil court, the Court of Session, but also handles the multitude of smaller cases dealt with in the country's Sheriff Courts.

During the course of his career, he has won high value payments for claimants who have had accidents at work and for victims of asbestos exposure.

He has developed a specialism in pursuing personal injury claims where liability is difficult to establish and has a particular expertise in tackling claims against highway authorities.
