

Edmund Young

Principal Lawyer
Personal injury

London, UK

Edmund is an expert in handling all types of industrial disease claims, particularly those relating to asbestos and employers' liability.

He leads a team of Industrial disease lawyers.

As such he is a frequent attendee at the asbestos sub-parliamentary committee of the House of Commons, which debates on all issues concerning asbestos led campaigns.

He is also a staunch supporter of asbestos led campaigns such as Asbestos in Schools and the HSE Hidden Killer campaign.

Expertise

- Industrial disease
- Asbestos
- Mesothelioma
- Asthma
- Silicosis
- Noise Induced Hearing loss claims
- Work related Upper limb disorder and HAVS claims
- Employers' liability

Commendations from independent legal directories

- Chambers and Partners
- Legal 500

Career history

- Since 2013-Slater and Gordon
- 2010 – 2013 Fentons Solicitors
- 2009 – 2010 Thompson Solicitors
- 1998 – 2009 Rowley Ashworth Solicitors
- 1995 –1998 Bolt Burdon Kemp Solicitors
- 1989-1995 Pearson Maddin Solicitors
- Guildford College of Law
- Kingston University

Professional memberships

- Senior litigator and occupational and asbestos disease specialist at the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers (APIL)