

Laura Craig

Solicitor
Clinical Negligence

London

Laura is a clinical negligence solicitor in Slater and Gordon's London office.

She handles cases involving all aspects of clinical negligence law.

These include birth injury for mother and baby, spinal injury, surgical injury, orthopaedic injury, missed or delayed diagnosis, failure to treat and fatal cases including inquests arising out of medical negligence.

Laura has particular experience in spinal injury and neonatal death claims.

She has also run cases relating to product liability in a medical setting including failed hip implants and pharmaceutical products.

Additionally, she has extensive experience in legal research.

Expertise

- Birth injury
- Surgical injury
- Orthopaedic injury
- Delayed diagnosis
- Misdiagnosis
- Medical negligence fatalities
- Spinal injury
- Neonatal death
- Product liability (Medical products)

Commendations from independent legal directories

- Trainee Solicitor of the Year at the Yorkshire Lawyer Awards 2010

Career history

- Since September 2014 Slater and Gordon
- 2006 - 2014 Irwin Mitchell LLP
- BPP Law, Leeds
- Newcastle University

Professional memberships

- Member of the Law Society
- Member of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers (APIL)
- An APIL accredited litigator and member of the Junior Lawyers Division

Publications

- Contributing editor to the APIL: Clinical Negligence Guide 2nd Edition, 2014

