

Helen Gierc

Solicitor
Serious Injury

Manchester, UK

Helen specialises in both serious injury claims and child abuse cases. She predominantly represents adults who suffered sexual abuse when they were children.

Many of these cases have been brought against the church, schools and organisations such as the Scout Association.

Helen has also acted in claims against local authorities and in particular against social services departments for failure to remove children who are being abused or neglected in the family home.

Helen has assisted in high profile sexual abuse cases against abusers such as Max Clifford and Jimmy Savile.

She is also involved in the ongoing Rochdale child sexual exploitation cases.
