

Kelly McGuire

Senior Manager
Court of Protection

Manchester, UK

Kelly manages a large team and has more than 13 years experience in her current role.

She specialises in Court of Protection cases for people with mental capacity issues and her primary focus is on dealing with deputyships.

Kelly has worked with clients who have suffered serious head injuries, who have been injured as a result of clinical negligence and who lack mental capacity due to old age, illness or disability.

She supports lay deputies and helps them carry out their role.

She also acts on behalf of claimants in pre-settlement catastrophic injury litigation to ensure they receive and appropriately manage interim payments to fund rehabilitation and care.
