

Lorraine Harvey

Principal Lawyer
Family Law

Manchester, UK

Lorraine has worked in the field of family law for almost two decades and has extensive experience.

She has successfully handled cases including everything from prenuptial agreements to divorce and dissolution and is also an expert where children are concerned, in particular where applications for shared residence and contact are involved.

On top of this Lorraine has a wealth of experience in resolving financial disputes following relationship breakdown, particularly where there is a family business, shareholdings and high value pensions.

She has also acted in international divorce disputes including cases with arguments over legal jurisdiction.

She is very familiar with the different approaches adopted by various judges across the country, and part of her caseload involves representing police officers nationwide.

Alongside this, she regularly writes articles for lifestyle magazines and lectures on family law issues.
