

Noel Petty

Senior Associate (Litigation Executive)
Court of Protection

Manchester, UK

Noel is a Senior Associate (Litigation Executive) within the Court of Protection department at Slater and Gordon Lawyers in Manchester.

He acts for a wide range of clients who lack mental capacity and require support in dealing with their property and affairs.

During his 13-year career, he has acted for those who have suffered serious head injuries as well as their families.

Much of this work involves coordinating the day-to-day management of clients' funds, many of which are multi-million pound compensation awards for clinical negligence or personal injuries.

He also works with other professionals including case managers, physiotherapists, specialist architects and social workers to ensure that his clients receive the coordinated care and support that they require.

Noel's role in his department includes administration and process development and in this area he has assisted the growth of the department and introduced new systems and processes to streamline operations.
