

Kiran Sharma

Paralegal
Group Litigation

London

Kiran is a Paralegal in the London Group Litigation Department and has had previous experience in the field of Group Litigation before joining Slater and Gordon Lawyers in 2014.

Kiran is currently involved in cases regarding the mis-selling of interest rate derivatives and has gained in-depth knowledge and experience in this area. Kiran is working alongside Solicitors in the team to gain redress for clients who have been mis-sold such products. She is also assisting on a leading case in this area of law, Crestsign Limited –v- National Westminster Bank Plc and The Bank of Scotland Plc which is in the appeal process.

Kiran is also assisting on a project called Green Oil Plantations Limited which involves the mis-selling of pension investment schemes.

In the past Kiran has been involved in the Mau Mau Litigation, which is a Personal Injury group action claim on behalf of Kenya citizens.

Kiran graduated with a 2:1 LLB Hons degree from Oxford Brookes University before undertaking the Legal Practice Course at the College of Law in Guildford and graduating with a Commendation.

Expertise

- Group litigation and class actions
- Swaps litigation
- Mis-selling of pension investment schemes

Career history

- Since 2014 Slater and Gordon

Professional memberships

- Member of the Law Society Junior Lawyers Division