

Penny Fitzpatrick

Senior Solicitor
Clinical Negligence

London, UK

Penny is a senior clinical negligence solicitor with Slater and Gordon in London.

She has more than 15 years experience handling clinical negligence cases.

She has successfully represented clients in a wide spectrum of cases including those relating to spinal injuries and birth injuries.

She has also handled a multitude of neurological, ophthalmic, obstetric, gynaecological, surgical, oncology and anaesthetic cases.

Many have concerned instances of misdiagnosis, inadequate surgical technique, delayed treatment and prescription error.

Much of her caseload involves complex, high value, maximum severity and fatal claims and her cases are chiefly against hospital trusts, general practitioners and private consultants.

Penny also represents clients at inquest.

She consistently receives positive client feedback and has had cases reported in both the local and national press.
